Dear Judge Pro,

My name is Thor Cook; I have been sentenced to 46 months in a federal medical facility. I was advised to write to you due to the fact that they have not yet found me a bed. If by January 30, 2012 I have not received word I will be sent to Pahrump holding facility, where I will not receive any physical therapy. And will be placed in segregation due to their inability to provide me with protection. As it is I am in need of another surgery to remove scar tissue and calcium build up in the shoulder. Any lapse in therapy will result in further damage and the possible lock up of the rotator cup. Upon my sentencing you requested my medical records in order to access my situation, which I have provided. I was told I could request a facility through you. I'm a level three offender, and Terminal Island in long beach California is a level three medical facility, it is my number one choice. It is in close proximity and will allow me to see my newborn son. My second choice would be Fort Worth, Texas.

As my last resort I was wondering if I could get a minimum thirty day extension. In order to give them more time to place me. I understand it takes longer for them to find me a place due to my needed medical care.

Sincerely,
